BUDVA PROPERTY

Budva municipality with its 18 beautiful sandy beaches, fantastic nature and skyrocketing tourism is an absolute hit on Montenegro Real Estate market. The Budva property buyers are coming from all around Europe to secure their property investment and buy home, land or commercial property. The attractiveness of this area for property buyers lies in its enormous tourism economy potential in a years to come and its wonderful natural setting.

SVETI STEFAN PROPERTY

At the heart of Sveti Stefan, the famous town-hotel attracts many tourists, business people and celebrities from the whole world. Sveti Stefan has been and still is, the hart of exclusivity and high level tourism in Montenegro. What strikes property buyers in Sveti Stefan is an outstanding opportunity to buy a piece of land on the hills and mountains at the background, built their own villa and enjoy a stunning sight while beeing only couple of minutes drive away. It is STILL possible to grab a piece of land here that does not cost the earth.

KOTOR PROPERTY

Kotor is old town listed in world heritage sites in UNESCO. Kotor resides in a beautifully carved bay which got its name after it: The Bay of Kotor. The property buyers in Kotor are often interested in old stone houses which have an added historical value. This whole beautiful region, for many years hidden from the eyes of foreign property buyers has just exploded in last two years. The prices are going up but it is still possible to find a house or piece of land along the water shore that is very well within a good investment.
