Jaz beach is one of three major resources of the coast of Montenegro. It lies with Mrcevo polje in its hinterlands, a seasonal stream Drenovstica passes through it, and on both sides it is protected by the hills of Grbalj and Straza. The beach is 2.5 km away from Budva in the direction of Tivat, and consists of two parts, the larger one 500m long, and the smaller one 300m long, the smaller one being used by nudists. It is a pebble beach, while a bit further away from the shore the bottom turns into sandy bottom giving the water a magnificent turquoise colour. Along the greater part of the beach, in the Mediterranean vegetation and greenery there is a campground with the capacity of 2,000 lots. This beach is a protected natural heritage site.

Mogren I and II beaches stretch from the cape called Mogren to the Avala Hotel belvedere. Their natural environment place Mogren into the category of most attractive beaches, with sand of medium particle size, both on the beach itself and in water. The beach is well exposed to the sun and southerly wind. From the backside it is protected by the hill of Spas covered in dense pine and oak woods. The beach is accessible only via hotel complex of Avala, which gives the beach its exclusivity. It is not more than 150 meters away from the old town. Mogren consists of two sandy beaches of total length of 350 meters, connected with a tunnel, concrete paths leading to them. They were named after the Spanish seafarer Mogrini, who suffered a shipwreck and landed on one of them. As a sign of gratitude, he built St. Anthony's church. As for town beaches, one is located between the Old Town and the Avala Hotel and the other between the Old Town and the Budva Marina. These are both pebble beaches and are located next to the walls of the Old Town.

The Slovenska beach stretches from the town harbour to the Park hotel, 1,600 meters in total length. It was declared a beach as early as 1920, and the Czechs who spent their summer holidays in Budva in 1935 gave it its present name Slovenska plaza (Slavic Beach). It is a pebble beach, and has at its backside a hotel complex with apartments, restaurants, cafes, and well tended for parks with diverse Mediterranean plants.

The Becici beach is one of the largest and is considered one of the most beautiful beaches in the southern Adriatic. It is a sandy beach, 1,950 m long and stretches from Zavala to Djevistenje. In 1935 it won the „Grand Prix" in Paris as the most beautiful beach in Europe. The significance attached to the beaches of Budva's Riviera and the quality of the sand is best illustrated by the fact that the Czechs organised an exhibition of sand from these beaches.
